

Columbine Unitarian Universalist Church

6724 S. Webster St., Littleton, Colorado 80128

cuuc@columbineuuchurch.org

Position Opening: Director of Music

(job position on church website)

- Anticipated Start Date: Summer 2021
- Half time - 20/hours/week
- Salary: $19,700
- Benefits: UUA Health Plan, Disability Coverage; Term Life Insurance; Dental Insurance, Professional Expense Allowance
- Application Deadline: May 31, 2021

Columbine has always been and will continue to be:

- A warm, caring and friendly church.
- A liberal church with strong social justice engagement.
- Committed to our music program.

The Director of Music will be responsible for:

- Coordinating the music program with Columbine's Music and Worship Teams.
- Selecting music for the worship services of the church.
- Leading the church choir and other musical groups.
- Coordinating with the church staff for church operations.

Qualifications:

- Musical love, talent, and ability to communicate.
- Music directing experience.
- Familiarity with Unitarian Universalism.

The Columbine Choir is a vital asset for our church community. We are searching for a Music Director who will foster connection and living into covenant, one who both challenges and nurtures the Choir and the congregation. Through our Dismantling Racism groups and collaboration with The Mountain Top UU BIPOC Community, we are actively engaged in building a true multicultural welcoming congregation. We expect our Director of Music to be a key partner in this challenge.

For more information visit our website: www.columbineuuchurch.org

Please submit resumes and questions to cuuc@columbineuuchurch.org